ARMISTICE DAY PREPARATIONS LAUNCHED

Legion Speakers To Visit School Nov. 8; Dance On Nov. 9; Rites Nov. 11th

Preparations for El Dorado County's observance of Armistice Day, Monday, November 11th, are going forward under the supervision of various committees appointed by El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion.

The observance will be in three phases, opening on Friday, November 8th, when various members of the American Legion will visit schools of the county to give talks about Armistice Day before the several classes.

On Saturday evening, November 9, at the Shakespeare Clubhouse, the post will hold its annual dance which, as it has been in the past few years, will be an invitational affair to the extent that those who wish to attend should ask for bids to the affair from Legion members. The Legionnaires report that they welcome the presence of all friends at the dance.

The exercises marking Armistice Day will be held on Monday, November 11th, which is a holiday, and are being arranged under the supervision of Frank Irwin.

Mr. Irwin said on Wednesday the arrangements for the day will follow the usual form, opening with a parade forming at the War Veterans' Memorial Building at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

"We will proceed to the lot opposite the bell tower on Main Street where the exercises will take place," Mr. Irwin said. "The program is being arranged and we shall expect to announce the complete program in ample time for its publication in advance of the Armistice Day observance."

Hoffman Leaves Post Nov. 1st

Frank W. McCarton Named Deputy To Serve During Absence Of Surveyor

County Surveyor Don M. Hoffman has appointed Frank W. McCarton to be his deputy and to have charge of his office during the next year.

Mr. Hoffman, a captain in the Army Reserve, leaves Saturday for Washington, D. C., to report to the Chief of Ordnance, War Department, for assignment to active duty. Captain Hoffman expects to return in November a year hence, unless further active duty is ordered.

Mr. McCarton has all ready undertaken his duties as deputy surveyor and, with Mr. McCarton, is making his home in Placerville.

The appointee is a civil engineer of wide experience and was for a number of years city engineer at Modesto. He is no stranger to El Dorado County, having made his home here for almost a year under assignment as supervising engineer on the recent additions to the El Dorado County high school building.

"Under the provisions of the Military and Veteran Code of this state," Captain Hoffman noted, "any officer or employee may absent himself without loss of standing when called to military duty. This is the status under which I leave and hope to return."

Driver Pays His Fine With Safety Reward

Roy Reese, of Penryn, has an unusual distinction.

He was cited by state Highway Patrol recently in this county for "straddling" the white line on the highway.

When he appeared before Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis and pleaded guilty, the court imposed a fine and—

Mr. Reese paid the fine with a refund check he had received from his auto insurance agency as a "reward for safe driving."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richards returned Tuesday evening from San Francisco, where they had spent a week.

George E. Faugsted, Lloyd Raffetto and Henry S. Lyon were at the Hangtown Duck Club for Wednesday morning's shoot.

Leads U. S. Eagles

An all-American Eagle Squadron of thirty-four Americans, ranging from crop dusters to society playboys, is ready to take the air for England under command of William E. G. Taylor, 35, a first lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

SENIOR PLAY SEATS GOING

Box Office Reports That First Ten Rows Of House Are All Ready Reserved

A large audience is expected to view the performance of "Mistakes at the Blakes", the senior play to be given Friday night, November 8 at the high school auditorium.

According to the seating chart at Fox's drug store where reserved seats may be obtained, the first ten rows are already pretty well filled.

Ticket sellers receive a free ticket for every ten they sell.

T. C. Flynn, dramatics teacher, has organized a make-up club to aid him in making-up the casts for the school plays. The members get their first chance to apply "war-paint" this week, and are looking forward to experimenting on each other.

The properties department, Bob Weidman and Gordon Fisk, who double as the expressmen, Ike and Mike, in the play, will stop at nothing short of perfection. When the script calls for letters, they produce them signed, sealed, addressed, and stamped. In fact, they even cancel the stamps with "Buy Government Bonds!"

Pictures of athletes and pretty girls are in demand right now, and the properties department can't seem to find them. If a few good pictures don't turn up soon, the boys may have to put up some of their own surrealist drawings.

Can you bark like a dog? If so, and you weigh in the neighborhood of a hundred pounds, there's a part for you in the senior play. Yes, they are still looking for that dog.

Widow Sues Insurance Firm About Policy

Mrs. Jennie Morfitt of Placerville, on Tuesday in the federal court at Sacramento filed a suit for $10,000 against the Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association. She alleges an agent for the company misrepresented the terms of a policy carried by her husband, Charles H. Morfitt, who died last March 22nd.

FIVE MORE VOLUNTEER FOR SERVICE IN ARMY, NAVY

Headquarters of the El Dorado County Selective Service Board at Room 1 in the basement of the Placerville post office announced Wednesday that five additional conscription registrants have volunteered for one-year enlistment in the Army or Navy.

Those who have volunteered are Roy C. Miller, Navy; Charles B. Weber, Navy; Melvin E. Drew, Navy; Glenn D. Price, Army; and Charles W. Cope, Army.

It was explained that these men and the five others who were named earlier in the week as "volunteers" have merely expressed a willingness to enlist now without awaiting draft classification, for one year of service.

They have not been ordered up for induction and their enlistment may or may not be turned down. They will be sent forward when a quota is called for from this county and the number of them who are accepted will be credited to the draft quota from this county.

VOLUNTEERS MAY FILL NOV. 18 DRAFT QUOTA; MILITARY TRAINING FOR 800,000

Officials Estimate That Ranks Of Trainees Will Be Filled From First 1,500 To 3,000 Capsules Drawn In National Lottery

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press Staff Correspondent

INTERDEPARTMENTAL AUDITORIUM, Washington, (UP) — The United States' first peace time compulsory military service lottery ended at 2:48 a. m. P. S. T., today after more than 17½ hours of drawing numbers from the World War fish bowl and as the sun came up 17,000,000 young Americans were numbered for selective service in the new national army. By the millions the young men turned out of bed today aware that 800,000 of them in a few months—30,000 by Nov. 18—will be inducted into the army. Volunteers probably will fill the Nov. 18 quota or come close to it, officials said.

But the draft is on. The United States is preparing to fire proof its defenses in a flaming world.

Selective service director Clarence A. Dykstra estimated that the first 1,500 to 3,000 numbers drawn will provide the 800,000 who will form the first trainee contingent in the new national army. The remaining thousands are a backlog for next year and the year after that as training progresses.

The draft bowl came up finally at 2:48 a. m. P. S. T. six numbers short of the 9,000 that were supposed to be in. The last number drawn was 2114, serial number 8-994. Selective service officials said they could not explain the six missing numbers but that no registrant would be without an order number.

Searching for the missing six numbers, lottery officials came up with two more missing from one list although only six were missing from another. The official and accurate list is a photographic record which has NOT been completely checked.

So a few minutes after 4 a. m. P. S. T., eight presumably missing numbers were placed in a brown felt hat and the final drawing took place in the presence of lottery officials and a few newspaper reporters. The reporters pulled the numbers. They were read by Bill. (Continued on Page Three)

County Clerk's Staff Commended For Work

Arthur J. Koletzke, county clerk, has received from the Governor a letter commending the work of the office in connection with the registration for selective service, carried out last month.

Three registration supplies and all having to do with the registration, was handled through the clerk's office with the assistance of precinct election boards.

In El Dorado County the work was carried out at Mr. Koletzke's direction under the supervision of V. H. Benson, deputy clerk.

C. C. Herbert and Sam Speers returned during the week from a hunting trip to Idaho. Friends report the two were unsuccessful at bagging an elk, which they had hoped to do, but did get a mountain goat or so.

World War Veteran Registers

David Emmett Barrett, 35, of Atlanta, Ga., one of the few veterans of the World War who is young enough to be affected by the draft law, is shown with some of his seven children. Giving his age as 18, Barrett enlisted in 1917 when he was 13 and stayed in the army until 1927.

HAVE BIG TIME BUT AVOID ROWDYISM, SPOOKS WARNED

Special Police, Prowler Cars Engaged To Protect Property In Placerville During Hallowe'en Season; Offenders To Be Nabbed

Nearly everybody wants to have a lot of fun during the Hallowe'en season, and as long as it is just fun, Placerville boys and girls, young and old, will have the assistance and co-operation of the Placerville police department.

But when Hallowe'en goings on get beyond the stage of being "fun," as sometimes they do, the pranksters are going to have to account for their doings in court.

This was indicated Wednesday morning by Police Chief Ralph Jones, who revealed that a special staff of officers is on duty during Hallowe'en season, and extra cars have been made available to the department to enforce a thorough patrol of the entire community. "Good clean fun is endorsed by nearly everyone," Jones said, "but when the pranks get into the stage where they endanger the lives of the general public in one way or another, or endanger or destroy property, that is a different matter."

"Nobody countenances that, not even the pranksters who sometimes get into such things without much thought."

"Anyone who destroys property or endangers the public safety by a Hallowe'en prank can expect to be cited to appear in court," the chief of police said.

"Let's have a big time, but let's have a safe and sane celebration, too. We will be on the trail of anyone who endangers the public safety or whose Hallowe'en celebration destroys property."

MAJOR PARTY NOMINEES IN LAST WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

By R. F. REYNOLDS

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN.
En Route to Boston, (UP)—President Roosevelt opened his third term drive in New England today by condemning the injection of fear into the campaign and blasting at the charges that the new deal plans to "send American boys to Europe."

Bidding for the 25 electoral votes of Massachusetts and Connecticut, Mr. Roosevelt told a rain-drenched crowd of 5000 at New Haven that "all this talk about sending American boys to Europe does not conform with the facts of the past or the facts of the future."

The President spoke from the rear platform of the special train carrying him up the industrial Connecticut Valley to Boston, where tonight he delivers a major political address to the nation.

Despite a driving, autumnal rain, a big crowd jammed the New Haven station to cheer him. Many in the crowd carried banners, proclaiming third term support, and pledging backing from labor organizations, including the international ladies garment workers and the shirt workers.

Mr. Roosevelt said that despite the extending theater of war, the United States "has been able to keep clear."

But, he said, America now has started mustering its manpower in a new measure to show its determination to keep clear.

RED CROSS PRODUCTION GROUP RESUMES WORK ON THURSDAY

The members of the Red Cross chapter production department are making plans to resume their regular Thursday afternoon meetings at the guild hall of the Church of Our Saviour.

The meetings had been discontinued for a time, since supplies for additional work had not arrived. However, the materials are now at hand and the production department will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the guild hall, to start work.

Women of the community who would enjoy assisting in the production work are welcome to share in the activity and should report at the guild hall at the church at the appointed hour.

MRS. SABINACAMPINI, FORMER RESIDENT, ANSWERS CALL

Mrs. Sabina Campini, 88, a resident of El Dorado County more than fifty years prior to her removal fifteen years ago to Sacramento, passed away on Tuesday at her home there.

The funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:30 o'clock from the Andrews & Greulich mortuary chapel, 28th and W Streets, in Sacramento, and will be followed by a graveside service at Union Cemetery, in Placerville.

The body of Mrs. Campini will be laid at rest beside the grave of her husband, Luigi Campini, who passed away seven years ago.

Mrs. Campini was born in Switzerland and came to this county seventy-two years ago. She and her husband were married in Placerville and made their home here for a few years, moving then to Smith Flat where, until 1878, Mr. Campini operated the store there.

Then they moved to the Baltic district where, until they moved to Sacramento fifteen years ago, Mr. Campini was engaged in stockraising and in mining.

Mrs. Campini was a sister of John De Bernardini, of this city, and is survived by three daughters and four sons, who are, Mrs. Louisa Sciaroni, of Grizzly Flat; Mrs. Mary Boe and Mrs. Florence Vaira, of Sacramento; Faust G. Campini, of Amador City; Louis P. Campini, of Sacramento; Edmund Campini, of Cressey, Merced County, and George Campini, of Grizzly Flat.

Golfers Are Asked To Meet On Thursday

County School Superintendent K. K. McCoy has called a meeting of golfers of the community to be held at his office at the courthouse on Thursday evening, at 7:15 o'clock.

"The meeting will take up the matter of getting started at the course," Mr. McCoy said, "and all who are interested on golf are welcome to attend the meeting."

DRIVE ON SUEZ PART OF WAR IN BALKANS

Germans Reported Holding 75,000 Troops Ready For Smash To Salonica

ISTANBUL (UP)—A high Bulgarian source reported today that five German divisions, numbering about 75,000 men, were in Albania ready for a blitzkrieg drive across northern Greece, presumably to Salonica, as soon as the frontier defenses of Greece had been shattered by the Italian Alpine troops.

Rebellion Grows

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, (UP)—Increasingly serious rebellion against Italian rule was reported today from the Albanian frontier.

Axis Seeks Truce

SOFIA, Bulgaria, (UP)—Unconfirmed reports circulated today that Germany was exerting pressure on Greece, through Turkey and other neighbors, in an effort to end Italo-Greek hostilities.

By UNITED PRESS

Great Britain and Greece fought off preliminary Axis stabs into the Balkans today but heavy movement of German reinforcements threatened stronger blows in a general Mediterranean offensive that may extend from Suez to Gibraltar.

The first move of the British navy in defense of Greece, it was disclosed officially in London, was to lay mines protecting the Gulf of Patras and the Gulf of Corinth and the Gulf of Aegina. This drew a barrier around the Corinth land bridge between northern Greece and the Peloponnese and guarded against any attempt by the Italians to break Greece in two by a surprise attack on the Corinth zone.

Dispatches from half a dozen European points indicated that the Italian thrust into Greece was but

Reforestation Work Resumed

CCC Crews To Set Out 121,000 Trees Under Forest Service Guidance

Eldorado Forest will resume work on reforestation in what is known as the "Kyburz burn" on Thursday when a crew of seventy-five CCC enrollees take the field under forest service supervision to plant 121,000 pine seedlings on approximately 242 acres of the burned over area.

This is according to announcement Wednesday from the office of Forest Supervisor Edwin F. Smith.

This is a continuation of the planting which has been under way since 1934. The area was burned by a large fire in 1932 and in the Middle Creek Basin, an area of about one thousand acres, nearly all of the trees were killed. To date the plantations consist of 736 acres to which we will add 242 acres during the present planting, thereby completing the project.

The seed was gathered on the Eldorado Forest, as close to the planting area as possible two years ago and shipped to the Forest Service Nursery near Susanville. There the seedlings are raised for two years, then removed from the transplant beds in the nursery, packed in moss and hauled back to the planting area where they are immediately "heeled in" until they can be planted. The seedlings are carefully sorted at the nursery and only the more vigorous trees of uniform size are planted.

The planting area is prepared by using a large bulldozer and clearing the brush in strips eight to ten feet apart. On each cleared strip, six feet wide, two rows of trees are planted.

The planting will be under the direction of Eugene H. Kincaid of the local Forest Service staff and the entire project has been planned and carried out by A. N. Weber, also of the local staff.

It is expected that this planting will take from ten days to two weeks for completion. With the completion of this large project a future timber crop is assured in an area which was destined to become another of nature's monuments to man's carelessness with fire—a large and useless brush field—a brush field which is of no value for grazing, recreation or timber production, the three major values of our National Forests.

WHAT'S WHAT AT A GLANCE WASHINGTON - WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist
COL. LEONARD P. AYRES, recently conscripted by the government as its chief statistician in connection with its defensive preparedness program, is better known as an economist than as a military man. Nevertheless, he did do government statistics for Uncle Sam during the last World war, and was drafted for the same job this time because his work was so capable in that era.

Colonel Ayres

Since then he's been editor of the Cleveland Trust company's bulletin, dealing with business conditions, of the moment and in prospect. The company gave him a leave of absence for his present duty. His bulletin has been one of the most interesting publications of its kind anywhere in the country. Nevertheless, the celebrated Pete Witt, also of Cleveland, didn't approve of it. The northern Ohio city has been the single tax capital of the United States ever since the days of the late Mayor Tom Johnson. Tom was a dyed-in-the-wool believer in Henry Georgeism and Pete was his foremost lieutenant. The single tax isn't as militantly fought for now as it was then, but Pete Witt never for a minute lost faith in it.

Well, the single taxers' philosophy is altogether different from Colonel Ayres' and Pete wholeheartedly disapproved of the latter. He said the colonel's commercial forecasts were pure guesswork—not a bit of science about 'em. "Why, if I were mayor of this town," he told me, the last time I saw him, "I'd have that chap run out of it, as a fortune teller."

A Criminal Ali

Not long ago a veteran Washington correspondent for a foreign newspaper had to register as an alien. He's been in this country since away back under the Hoover administration, but he's never been naturalized.

One of the questions put to him was, "Were you ever convicted of a crime?" Unhappily, while prohibition still reigned, the guy once had been caught taking a drink in a speakeasy and had been penalized for it. Regrettably he mentioned the incident in the questionnaire, turned it in to the proper official and started to get out, hoping to escape before his malefaction was noticed. "Hey," yelled the official, stopping him, "you can't get away with this!"

"W-w-what?" stammered the miserable outlander, who hadn't realized that his offense was deplorable. "Heck, no," rejoined the functionary. "Taking a drink in a speakeasy was no crime." And he scratched it off the record. "Gumming up our registration with that kind of stuff," he muttered impatiently.

Passion for Anonymity
Lowell Mellett has just been named as one of President Roosevelt's executive assistants—"with a passion for anonymity." The president himself asked for six of these aides, specifying the "anonymity passion" as the most essential of their qualifications. Congress provided him with the sextet, though it didn't specify anonymity. The White House never has named the full six of them, but it does pick one now and then. And (by gravity) they certainly are anonymous. Their appointments are announced at the time they're made, and that's the last that ever is heard of them. What they do, as executive assistants, heaven knows. I don't believe it would be possible to get a full list of 'em.

Mellett the Invisible
Lowell undoubtedly is personally acquainted with as many newspapermen as any scribe in the U. S. A. He's worked, on important journalistic jobs, from ocean to ocean. He's been a Washington managing editor. But he always has been quite an advanced liberal. When his newspaper bosses turned conservative he quietly evaporated. Nobody knew much about it. He simply turned up missing.

Then the New Deal chose him as director of the office of government reports. He could have made a splash in that berth. It brought him into contact with publicity opportunities aplenty. He stayed as quiet as a mouse instead.

Besides being a presidential executive assistant he remains government reports director—twin positions. I'll gamble that he makes no more noise as twins than he did in his individual capacity. I've worked alongside that boy on several newspapers and boarded in the same house with him. Yet he's so anonymous that I scarcely know him any more. He surely has a passion for it.

No Farm Recovery Here

The major objective of the New Deal's foreign trade policy was to increase exports of American farm surplus. The dollar value of our agricultural exports, however, declined 9.2 per cent between the fiscal years 1932 and 1939. Non-agricultural exports, on the other hand, increased 90 per cent in dollar value during this period. Total exports increased in that period 31 per cent in dollar value. In terms of volume our agricultural exports declined 36 per cent between the fiscal years 1932 and 1939. The volume of our cotton exports declined 58 per cent; wheat and flour exports 15 per cent; cured pork 22 per cent, and lard 56 per cent.

Reduced Farm Tariffs

Reciprocal trade agreements made by the New Deal reduced the tariff on 192 agricultural products, despite candidate Roosevelt's statement in 1932: "I know of no excessively high tariff duties on farm products . . . that should be lowered."

Once, I Could Vote, Too!

Once, like you, I was a free man! A Frenchman! Politicians made speeches to me, too! They spoke about our impregnable democracy. They told me what they were doing to protect my standard of living and my working conditions. They promised my family safety through preparedness. But they weren't honest with me! They let me down! I found that out when I had to give up my job to go to war—at the same time that I found out you couldn't stop tanks with bodies, that you couldn't halt bombs and you couldn't buy peace with promises.

Now they are holding trials to find out whose fault it was. But I know—It was MY fault!

I voted for the easy way. I voted for the beguiling voice. I voted for the politician, not the man.

I was one of a nation of free men who did not prize freedom. Today I am not free. I repeat, it was my fault. But it was I who paid the penalty. I, with my womenfolk and my children! I, who thought I was prepared for war.

Free men of America, already you may be pledged to a conflict for which you know you are not prepared.

Remember my mistake! Weigh the man against the politician before you vote.

Do not vote for a politician—VOTE FOR A MAN WHO WORKED WITH HIS HANDS.

Do not vote for a voice—VOTE FOR A MAN.

Do not vote for the easy way—VOTE FOR A MAN WHO CAME UP THE HARD WAY.

POLLOCK PINES NOTES

A Hallowe'en party is coming up Friday afternoon at the school for the youngsters, at which all the time-honored games and stunts will be enjoyed.

The Pioneer Sewing Club was to meet at Mrs. Pollock's home on Thursday, and Plans are to be made for Christmas sewing.

The school is the proud owner of a complete new baseball outfit, also a volley ball and net. Now the teams can really get to work.

The P. T. A. met last Thursday afternoon at the school and made plans for a basket supper and a dance to be held November 6, at the school, the proceeds to go for the children's Christmas as usual. The P. T. A. has also launched a membership drive and all new members will be credited to which ever youngster they sign with. The room receiving the most credits by November 15 will receive a prize given by the organization.

Mrs. James Bell has her aunt, Mrs. Seely of Sacramento as her houseguest this week.

The George Lindsay family of Placerville were Sunday visitors at the L. Ahlstrom home this week.

Mrs. Willey, county music supervisor, visited our P. T. A. meeting last week and was very much pleased with the rhythm band and the dancing numbers presented by the primary grades for the members.

Johnny Lynch was home this week on furlough from Fort Ord, where he is stationed now with the regular Army. Johnny returned on Wednesday.

The construction on the new addition to the school has progressed to the foundation point, and the big frame timbers are being placed, according to Harry Reese, school principal.

Mrs. Verrell former owner of the "Triangle" and her sister were visiting here Saturday from Sacramento.

Joe Marshall is recovering from a serious illness resulting from infection from an insect bite.

COLOMA NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson of Oakland spent the week-end with their son-in-law, Jack Soule.

Mrs. Maud Rhorer of Berkeley spent Sunday at her summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Evers of Oakland spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Tillie Conroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Grout and Mrs. Angie De Lory were in Sacramento on business Monday.

Mrs. Kate Harmon and son Ernest and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardy of Stockton were recent visitors at the home of Frank Amstalden.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barr got back from a three weeks vacation Friday and resumed their duties at Marshall Park. Jack Calvert who substituted for them has gone on to the Calaveras park.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huston got back Friday from a month's visit in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Grout recently complimented William Knapp on his 6th birthday with a fine dinner and huge birthday cake. Needless to say the old gentleman enjoyed the celebration and has every expectation of living to see his 100th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans who occupied the Huston apartment the past six weeks have moved to Folsom.

Over 200 guests registered at the Park Sunday. The improvements recently completed there by the W. P. A. workers are highly complimented and enjoyed.

A small pet dog owned by local people is causing a lot of grief in the poultry yards here. It seems strange a family supposed to have pride and self-respect would permit such degradation to go on over a period of several months and not do anything to stop it.

All Set for Hallowe'en

JUST to show you what pleasing sights await the spooks that rove on Hallowe'en, Peggy Montgomery and Helen Thomas posed for this picture at the Ford Motor pavilion in the New York World's Fair. Peggy is wearing the Ford Motor pavilion's unique twelve-times-a-day auto fashion show. The clothes are from Lord and Taylor, smart Fifth Avenue store. The station wagon shown here is a 1941 style flash too—it's the Mercury line. This eight-passenger model has moveable front and rear seats, and it comes in eight fashionable colors.

and brass buttons. Her shoes are red "Mary-Janes." Her mittens are "knock-outs"—also red leather, and made exactly like a boxer's. Helen wears a red flannel pinafore with two slit pockets in the skirt, and a matching double-breasted shirt. These costumes, smart and practical for every occasion from classes to capers, are shown in the Ford Motor pavilion's unique twelve-times-a-day auto fashion show. The clothes are from Lord and Taylor, smart Fifth Avenue store. The station wagon shown here is a 1941 style flash too—it's the Mercury line. LOTUS NOTES

Al Greenwood of Sacramento was a Sunday visitor in Lotus.

Mrs. Lottie Galleher made a business trip to Placerville on Friday.

Bob and Albert Johnson were among the interested spectators who watched the operations of the dredge on Sunday. The "boat" is on the county road and a good detour is being used. Hector Williamson will put in a culvert this week and traffic will in no way be tied up.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hume were in Lotus for a short while on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Reaside who spent several days in San Francisco and the bay district returned to her home Thursday evening of last week.

Francis Bacchi suffered a painful knee injury Saturday while attempting to mount his horse—but at the present writing his condition is satisfactory.

Mrs. Lottie Galleher was hostess Saturday evening at a card party at her home. Among those who played were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reaside, Malcolm Veerkamp and Fred Castillo. A delicious supper was served at midnight by Mrs. Lottie Galleher.

Chauncey Smith, Jr., and his brother, who are employed by the General Dredging Corporation and who have been commuting from Shingle Springs, have rented the cottage on the Reaside ranch, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Phil Allen.

Lotus has a new resident to add to its list—a son, Raymond, having been born on October 18th to Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sherbourne and daughter, of Sacramento, called on Mrs. Lottie Galleher Sunday.

We wish to take this opportunity to extend to Axel Kilander, who has just returned to Lotus with the Laxer family, very happy 82nd birthday. November 1st, Axel has been a resident of this community for many years, and we hope he will continue to travel amongst us for a long time to come.

The boosters meeting given by Gold Trail Grange at the community hall in Coloma last Wednesday evening was in every way a success and drew a large crowd from far and near. The meeting was opened by Past Master Ed Odlin and all sang "America" after which a prayer was said by the chaplain. The meeting was then turned over to the lecturer, Mrs. Minnie Marchini, who gave the following pro-

Twenty-five minutes later the selective service of officials announced they had found numbers 1033 and 6771—thereby reducing the drawing to the originally scheduled 9,000. Both numbers previously had been drawn. With those numbers eliminated the felt hat draft was corrected.

Captain Francis V. Keesling, Jr. reserve officer, provided the brown felt hat for the second draw. Keesling is a San Francisco attorney in private life.

The hat that replaced the gold fish bowl is size 7½, about one year old and from the shelves of Bullock and Jones, San Francisco. Mr. Keesling did not know whether it would be necessary to file his hat in the national archives building or even transport it to Independence Hall to rest beside the gold fish bowl. He thought, however, that he would just put it back on his head and wear it.

A song, "Old Black Joe," followed by "I'll Take You Home Again," by Lester Martin; a poem was recited by Birdie Rice, following a skit by Francis Hancock and Gladys Akin; then came a saxophone and piano duet by Jack Cummings and Mrs. Noreen Peterson. Several old-time tunes by Mr. Robert Carpenter of Placerville on the violin, and Henry Kane with the "bones" accompanied by Mrs. Carpenter on the piano. Contest—"The Ghost Walk," by Bertha Odlin; a song and encore by Judge Rasmussen, "Old Slaves Lament," and an Irish song, "Barney Biley," which Charlie sang at the Coloma and Lotus Silver Star Minstrel show over 33 years ago; also a song given by Marilyn and Eugene Hines, sister and brother, as a closing number—"God Bless America." After the program there were fortunes told by Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Miller. Bobbing for apples for all the children present, all receiving lolly pops. A fish pond with Florence Hines and Charlotte Winji in charge—all closing with dancing and refreshments and more dancing. All enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

Our Rebekah ladies wish us to again announce their card party to be held at their hall in Coloma on Tuesday evening, November 5. Good prizes will be given the winners, and a buffet spread after the game is over will be had. Come out and help our ladies.

Russell Brown and B. J. Aaron of Sacramento was in our town the past week buying junk, old iron and almost anything they could get, going from here to Georgetown.

We serve with our Coloma correspondent in every way. Give us a marker and change the postoffice in our town to Uniontown—as it was known in pioneer times. Who will take the lead for such a change?

The Guinea fever has hit Lotus—quite a number are engaged in raising the fowls. Among those who have the birds here are Dan Bassi, Mrs. Noreen Peterson, Mrs. Alice Thayer and Judge Rasmussen, who recently got a dozen of the birds from Bob Johnson near Coloma who also is in the business, besides others. The fowls originated in England and are named after the town of Guinea, according to Daniel Webster.

Mrs. Irma Lawyer came down from her summer resort at Uncle Toms on Saturday last for the winter her husband is still at the re-

"GOLDEN FLEECE" IS TWO-DAY FEATURE AT EMPIRE

"Golden Fleece," which tops the Wednesday and Thursday program at the Empire Theater, is a comedy of errors.

The first error in this comedy of errors is made by a junior employee of a life insurance company who sells a $50,000 policy to a supposed business man who is in resort gathering up his cattle and will soon get out of there before the snow begins to fly.

After spending a week in our town the guests of Mrs. Jessie Whitehead time friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cavalier returned to their home on Saturday morning last. Shortly after their departure Loring White, state fruit and vegetable inspector, came over from Marysville where he is now stationed for a while and spent the week-end with his mother, returning to his duties Monday.

The writer has been asked time and again when the postoffices in Lotus and Coloma were established and as we have just received the information from Washington, we pass it along. We will add that after Albert Norris sold out his place in Lotus, Charles Rasmussen took the office as acting postmaster and served for about two years when he was appointed postmaster in 1901, holding office for nearly six years. After this, Jacob A. Harris received the appointment in 1907. When Harris sold out his interests in Lotus and moved to Shingle Springs, Charlie again became acting postmaster and served for three years until Mrs. Elizabeth Uhlenkamp was appointed in 1913. Thus it appears that Mr. Rasmussen was in the postoffice "business" a total of almost eleven years. The record of appointments in the two postoffices, as reported by Ambrose O'Connell, first assistant Postmaster General, follows:

Lotus: George W. Gallanar was appointed when the office was established on January 6, 1881, then, Albert W. Norris, May 25, 1894; Charles A. Rasmussen, June 13th, 1901; Jacob A. Harris, February 8, 1907; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Uhlenkamp, June 7, 1913; and Mrs. Lottie Galleher, November 3, 1925.

Coloma: This office was established as Culloma, California Territory, on November 8, 1849, with Jacob T. Little as postmaster. The name of the office was changed to Coloma on January 13, 1851 and on that date Stephen S. Brooks was named postmaster. Other appointments follow: Peter E. Wimmer, May 4, 1853; A. A. Waldron, January 31, 1854; Daniel G. Waldren, August 2, 1854; Robert F. Davis, January 19, 1855; Cornelius Courtney, April 11, 1857; William H. Bodfish, November 18, 1859; J. C. Brown, June 28, 1861; Robert Chalmers, April 5, 1862; Stanley F. Childs, August 21, 1863; John Price, June 23, 1871; Cora Price, November 13, 1902; Broder Ralph Heikens, July 10, 1906; Ray R. Rosenberger, acting August 23, 1935, appointed October 4, 1935.

ality a gangster with a reward offered for his capture dead or alive. The second error is made by the young man in setting out to do what he may about keeping the insured alive and the third is made by the gangster in forcing the authorities on agreement that the captor will give reward money to captive for purposes of financing an escape plan. From these three errors develop many, all as consequences and with consequences, the end-result being a film that seemed to satisfy a neighborhood-theatre preview audience fully.

WOMEN RALLY TO NATION'S DEFENSE IN RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICES

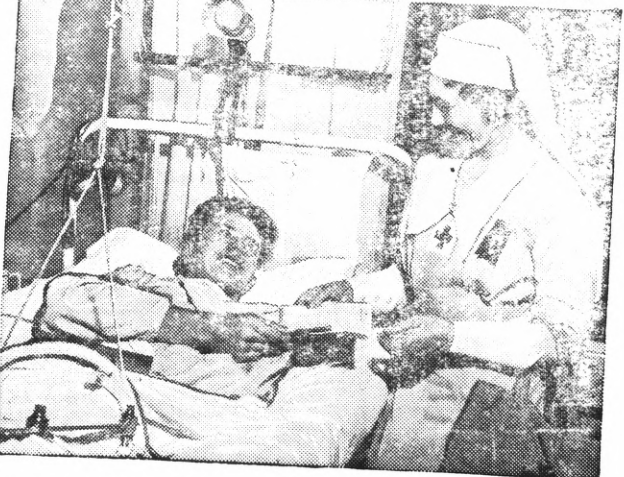

Training Courses Fit Them for Duties Vital in Present Emergency

WITH the call to the colors of more than a million of the nation's young men, American women everywhere ask how they can volunteer their services to aid in the emergency. What part can women and girls play in national defense?

The American Red Cross, through its 3,700 Chapters and their branches, provides the answer. More than a half million women already have enrolled to give their time in Red Cross volunteer services, according to Mrs. Dwight F. Davis of Washington, D. C., Chairman of Red Cross Volunteer Special Services. Through sewing and knitting a million garments for Europe's war victims, and making millions of surgical dressings for war wounded and sick, they have gained efficiency and experience which can be readily diverted to the work for home defenses should the need arise, Mrs. Davis said.

In order to prepare most efficiently for any emergency which may come, the Red Cross is extending its training courses through its Chapters. Women motorists are trained for the Red Cross Motor Corps; girls who wish to volunteer for office work, train for the Staff Assistance Corps; other thousands join the Canteen Corps; women and girls who wish to learn to protect the health of their families,

Top, left, millions of garments and surgical dressings made for war victims by uniformed women; right, Nurse's Aides trained to serve in hospital clinics; Gray Ladies trained to give morale building services in military and civilian hospitals. All are volunteers who give time to this work of mercy every day.

take Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Courses; those who wish to learn how to aid the victim of an accident, enroll in the First Aid classes.

The Gray Lady Corps is composed of volunteers who require more specialized training and this is available only in those chapters near military hospitals. The Gray Ladies are the visitors in military and civilian hospitals giving those aids and comforts to sustain the morale of the sick. Nurse's Aides are trained to assist doctors and expert registered nurses in clinics and hospitals and this training is limited at present to regions where there are many hospitals.

The Red Cross "preparedness for humanity" program is supported by the memberships of the American public and every patriotic man and woman is urged to join his local Red Cross Chapter during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

PROTECT CALIFORNIA'S AMERICAN-OWNED FISHING FLEET WHICH AS A NAVAL DEFENSE AUXILIARY MAY BE NEEDED TO PROTECT YOU

A "Yes" vote on Proposition Number 9 will help keep California's Fishing Fleet documented in California's ports by adjusting tax discrimination now existing.

A "Yes" vote will retain to the state the right to tax all large steamships and other commercial craft which pay no taxes, and will correct the present law under which only four coastal counties receive benefits from taxes paid by the fishing boats.

A "Yes" vote on Number 9 is urged by the American Legion Department of California, the California State Federation of Labor, and the State Chamber of Commerce. California's State Legislature voted for its adoption.

The meeting opened with the Salute to the Flag followed by the singing of "America the Beautiful," and two vocal solos by Mrs. Ralph Smith.

Following reports of club presidents and section chairmen and the usual order of business the president introduced Mrs. Edwards, Pacific area director of the Red Cross whose territory embraces the seven western states.

Mrs. Edwards proved to be a most interesting and informative speaker, outlining the activities of the Red Cross in times of great disaster, especially in flood stricken areas by providing homes and supplies to those made destitute through no fault of their own.

She dwelt on the necessity for answering the Roll Call without hesitation as the Red Cross is the one great organization that belongs to the people. It is non-partisan in nature and serves every race, color and creed with equal consideration.

A most interesting outline was given by the speaker of the American Red Cross contact with the organization in Great Britain, China and the various countries served by and through a world wide humanitarian understanding. For the benefit of those who desire to know just how American Red Cross funds are distributed a penny post card to headquarters in Washington will bring the necessary information, according to Mrs. Edwards.

The northern district president, Mrs. F. E. George, concluded the morning session by stressing the need for close cooperation of subordinate clubs with their respective district presidents and urged a general study of Federation work to assist local presidents and their organizations to bring about a better understanding of what Federation stands for.

Following the luncheon which was served by the ladies of the Methodist Church the state president, Mrs. Thomas Richards, was introduced by Mrs. Sinclair.

Always a charming personality, Mrs. Richards was received with a hearty applause and chose as the theme of her address, "Window Shopping."

This subject was cleverly handled and the term used figuratively, for "Window Shopping," was applied to the Main Street of club opportunity and obligation. Each window, the speaker explained in her discourse, might be one of education, citizenship, mental hygiene, youth cooperation, home and safety, literature or a civic project from which the community would derive a lasting benefit.

The necessity for voting, a study of amendments, a high regard for our privilege of being Americans and the necessity for a constant vigil against subversive activities were some of the very important points brought out in the state president's very splendid address.

Following the adoption of courtesy resolutions the meeting adjourned by the singing of "God Bless America."

Those who attended from the Placerville Shakespeare Club were Mrs. Robert Sinclair, president of the Tri-County group; Mrs. John Nelson, president and delegate of the local club; Mrs. Philip Volz, Mrs. Masters, Mrs. Hattie Amstalden, Mrs. Homer Brown, Mrs. Wm. Albright and Mrs. Charles Hand. Mrs. Delbert Niigel, secretary of the Tri-County organization, and Mrs. L. R. Enzler, delegate, represented the Cool Study Club.

Mrs. Robert Carpenter reports that an entertainment will be presented at the Shakespeare club house on Friday evening, Nov. 1st by members of the club and the Federated Church.
